

Jonathan Grasso is a member who practices regionally and nationally representing a diverse range of business clients in the areas of complex commercial litigation, restructuring, bankruptcy, collections, out-of-court workouts and other creditors' rights matters. Specifically, Mr. Grasso has substantial experience representing business debtors, business owners and officers, landlords, secured and unsecured creditors, creditors' committees, trustees, and liquidating trusts in matters generally ranging up to $100 million.

Mr. Grasso's commercial litigation experience includes representing plaintiffs and defendants in shareholder disputes, securities violations, breach of contract actions, embezzlement, negligent misrepresentations, fraudulent conveyances, breach of fiduciary duty claims and construction disputes.

Within Mr. Grasso's creditors' rights practice, he pursues and defends against a variety of collection actions, such as debtor's interrogatories, wage and bank garnishments, successor liability lawsuits and the foreclosure of real estate and personal property. His bankruptcy practice includes handling all aspects of the Chapter 11 process for all parties-in-interest in a bankruptcy proceeding, including first day motions, relief from the automatic stay, assumption and rejection of leases, plan confirmation, objections to claims, and adversary proceedings.

"I am truly fortunate to join YVS Law to work alongside such highly respected business bankruptcy, commercial litigation, and real estate attorneys, some of which I've known for more than a decade. I'm excited to return to Maryland to refocus my efforts on helping businesses in the DMV area achieve their goals, while continuing to represent my other clients based throughout the country."
